Dear CHA Families,

Here's this week's news:

Quote From a New CHA Parent

"Thank you so very much for a wonderful first two weeks. We are already so impressed by the school. Our daughter is in Kindergarten, and we couldn't be happier!! Keep up the great work!" ~ new CHA parents

Do You Participate In United Way Donations?

Chapel Hill Academy is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit corporation and can be designated for United Way Donations. Our employer Tax ID # is 41-0965970. Consider supporting Chapel Hill Academy through United Way donations, and be sure to let others who would like to support Christian education know that we are eligible. Contact Leslie Robertson robertsonl@chapel-hill.org if you have any questions.

Parent Portal Access Coming Next Friday

We had hoped that our new parent portal would be fully integrated between TADS and Cornerstone and accessible by now. Though full implementation is near, we are now able to give parents access to the grade and classroom reports offered in Cornerstone starting this coming Friday, October 14. Parents will receive log-on information next week via email with instructions as to how you can access your child's classroom and grade reports. Please be looking for that email from Chapel Hill Academy next Friday. Thank you for your patience and flexibility as we transition to our new parent portal.

Golf Challenge Gratitude

Chapel Hill Academy would like to extend special thanks to our Golf Challenge Event Sponsor, Barb and Gary Hegenes. We would also like to extend our gratitude to our other key sponsors, Stafford Family Realtors, Foss Swim School and The Gold Guys, and many other sponsors and volunteers. Your support contributed to the success of our event and allows us to raise tomorrow's leaders today and make a difference for Eternity. We truly could not do this without you. THANK YOU!

Mr. Siciliano Blesses CHA!

A HUGE thank you to Thomas Siciliano (dad to Emma in 5th grade), who came into the art room through the month of September to teach students the history, art and science of papermaking. Students from Kindergarten through 8th grade also learned how papermaking relates to us as Christians in how the word of God was spread throughout history. It was a fantastic unit in which all students made paper that they will use throughout the school year. Take a moment to walk down the halls by the auditorium to see some of the examples. Thank you again, Mr. Siciliano!

It's Time to Order Your Poinsettias

A brochure will be coming home Monday with your child. The PFA (Parent Fellowship Association) would like to encourage people to order for themselves, as gifts and to bring them to their offices to their fellow work friends. Orders are due back November 8. Please contact Brenda Schmidt with any questions: 952-826-0888

Hot Lunch News

Time to Order Lunch for Quarter 2: The new menu and order form are available by clicking on this link. Hard copies are available in the Parent Center. Please return your order form to the basket in the Parent Center by Tuesday, October 18 (the last day before MEA break).

"Oops - I forgot My Lunch Charges": We are always happy to feed your child if they forget their lunch. They may be offered hot lunch if there is extra, or a sack lunch. If your child has utilized this service in the month of September, charges will show on your TADS account. If you would like to know specific days your child came in, please contact the kitchen by e-mailing hotlunch@chapel-hill.org.

Special Thanks from the Kitchen: Our kitchen has been blessed by generous donations of new commercial kitchen equipment; our sincerest thanks go to Todd Anderson and North Star Agency. Wendy Hultine, a CHA grandma, is regularly volunteering in the kitchen and bringing extra sparkle and joy to our serving. Melanie Riederich volunteered to serve samples, giving the children a chance to taste a bite of broccoli, raisin, grape and bacon salad. Her clever marketing had kids trying "Grapes in the Forest" salad, which is far more appetizing than "broccoli" salad." Thank you from the kitchen crew!

WEEKLY UPDATE FOR OCTOBER 7, 2011

Dear CHA Families,

Submissions to the Weekly Update are due to Ruth Sherrred at sherredr@chapel-hill.org by 8:00 AM Thursday. All submissions must be in the form of an email and need to be proofed and ready to print prior to sending to Ruth.

Here's this week's news:

Quote From a New CHA Parent

"Thank you so very much for a wonderful first two weeks. We are already so impressed by the school. Our daughter is in Kindergarten, and we couldn't be happier!! Keep up the great work!" ~ new CHA parents

Do You Participate In United Way Donations?

Chapel Hill Academy is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit corporation and can be designated for United Way Donations. Our employer Tax ID # is 41-0965970. Consider supporting Chapel Hill Academy through United Way donations, and be sure to let others who would like to support Christian education know that we are eligible. Contact Leslie Robertson robertsonl@chapel-hill.org if you have any questions.

Parent Portal Access Coming Next Friday

We had hoped that our new parent portal would be fully integrated between TADS and Cornerstone and accessible by now. Though full implementation is near, we are now able to give parents access to the grade and classroom reports offered in Cornerstone starting this coming Friday, October 14. Parents will receive log-on information next week via email with instructions as to how you can access your child's classroom and grade reports. Please be looking for that email from Chapel Hill Academy next Friday. Thank you for your patience and flexibility as we transition to our new parent portal.

Golf Challenge Gratitude

Chapel Hill Academy would like to extend special thanks to our Golf Challenge Event Sponsor, Barb and Gary Hegenes. We would also like to extend our gratitude to our other key sponsors, Stafford Family Realtors, Foss Swim School and The Gold Guys, and many other sponsors and volunteers. Your support contributed to the success of our event and allows us to raise tomorrow's leaders today and make a difference for Eternity. We truly could not do this without you. THANK YOU!

Mr. Siciliano Blesses CHA!

A HUGE thank you to Thomas Siciliano (dad to Emma in 5th grade), who came into the art room through the month of September to teach students the history, art and science of papermaking. Students from Kindergarten through 8th grade also learned how papermaking relates to us as Christians in how the word of God was spread throughout history. It was a fantastic unit in which all students made paper that they will use throughout the school year. Take a moment to walk down the halls by the auditorium to see some of the examples. Thank you again, Mr. Siciliano!

It's Time to Order Your Poinsettias

A brochure will be coming home Monday with your child. The PFA (Parent Fellowship Association) would like to encourage people to order for themselves, as gifts and to bring them to their offices to their fellow work friends. Orders are due back November 8. Please contact Brenda Schmidt with any questions: 952-826-0888

Hot Lunch News

Time to Order Lunch for Quarter 2: The new menu and order form are available by clicking on this link. Hard copies are available in the Parent Center. Please return your order form to the basket in the Parent Center by Tuesday, October 18 (the last day before MEA break).

"Oops - I forgot My Lunch Charges": We are always happy to feed your child if they forget their lunch. They may be offered hot lunch if there is extra, or a sack lunch. If your child has utilized this service in the month of September, charges will show on your TADS account. If you would like to know specific days your child came in, please contact the kitchen by e-mailing hotlunch@chapel-hill.org.

Special Thanks from the Kitchen: Our kitchen has been blessed by generous donations of new commercial kitchen equipment; our sincerest thanks go to Todd Anderson and North Star Agency. Wendy Hultine, a CHA grandma, is regularly volunteering in the kitchen and bringing extra sparkle and joy to our serving. Melanie Riederich volunteered to serve samples, giving the children a chance to taste a bite of broccoli, raisin, grape and bacon salad. Her clever marketing had kids trying "Grapes in the Forest" salad, which is far more appetizing than "broccoli" salad." Thank you from the kitchen crew!

Here's this week's news:

Quote From a New CHA Parent

"Thank you so very much for a wonderful first two weeks. We are already so impressed by the school. Our daughter is in Kindergarten, and we couldn't be happier!! Keep up the great work!" ~ new CHA parents

Do You Participate In United Way Donations?

Chapel Hill Academy is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit corporation and can be designated for United Way Donations. Our employer Tax ID # is 41-0965970. Consider supporting Chapel Hill Academy through United Way donations, and be sure to let others who would like to support Christian education know that we are eligible. Contact Leslie Robertson robertsonl@chapel-hill.org if you have any questions.

Parent Portal Access Coming Next Friday

We had hoped that our new parent portal would be fully integrated between TADS and Cornerstone and accessible by now. Though full implementation is near, we are now able to give parents access to the grade and classroom reports offered in Cornerstone starting this coming Friday, October 14. Parents will receive log-on information next week via email with instructions as to how you can access your child's classroom and grade reports. Please be looking for that email from Chapel Hill Academy next Friday. Thank you for your patience and flexibility as we transition to our new parent portal.

Golf Challenge Gratitude

Chapel Hill Academy would like to extend special thanks to our Golf Challenge Event Sponsor, Barb and Gary Hegenes. We would also like to extend our gratitude to our other key sponsors, Stafford Family Realtors, Foss Swim School and The Gold Guys, and many other sponsors and volunteers. Your support contributed to the success of our event and allows us to raise tomorrow's leaders today and make a difference for Eternity. We truly could not do this without you. THANK YOU!

Mr. Siciliano Blesses CHA!

A HUGE thank you to Thomas Siciliano (dad to Emma in 5th grade), who came into the art room through the month of September to teach students the history, art and science of papermaking. Students from Kindergarten through 8th grade also learned how papermaking relates to us as Christians in how the word of God was spread throughout history. It was a fantastic unit in which all students made paper that they will use throughout the school year. Take a moment to walk down the halls by the auditorium to see some of the examples. Thank you again, Mr. Siciliano!

It's Time to Order Your Poinsettias

A brochure will be coming home Monday with your child. The PFA (Parent Fellowship Association) would like to encourage people to order for themselves, as gifts and to bring them to their offices to their fellow work friends. Orders are due back November 8. Please contact Brenda Schmidt with any questions: 952-826-0888

Hot Lunch News

Time to Order Lunch for Quarter 2: The new menu and order form are available by clicking on this link. Hard copies are available in the Parent Center. Please return your order form to the basket in the Parent Center by Tuesday, October 18 (the last day before MEA break).

"Oops - I forgot My Lunch Charges": We are always happy to feed your child if they forget their lunch. They may be offered hot lunch if there is extra, or a sack lunch. If your child has utilized this service in the month of September, charges will show on your TADS account. If you would like to know specific days your child came in, please contact the kitchen by e-mailing hotlunch@chapel-hill.org.

Special Thanks from the Kitchen: Our kitchen has been blessed by generous donations of new commercial kitchen equipment; our sincerest thanks go to Todd Anderson and North Star Agency. Wendy Hultine, a CHA grandma, is regularly volunteering in the kitchen and bringing extra sparkle and joy to our serving. Melanie Riederich volunteered to serve samples, giving the children a chance to taste a bite of broccoli, raisin, grape and bacon salad. Her clever marketing had kids trying "Grapes in the Forest" salad, which is far more appetizing than "broccoli" salad." Thank you from the kitchen crew!

WEEKLY UPDATE FOR OCTOBER 7, 2011

Dear CHA Families,

Submissions to the Weekly Update are due to Ruth Sherrred at sherredr@chapel-hill.org by 8:00 AM Thursday. All submissions must be in the form of an email and need to be proofed and ready to print prior to sending to Ruth.

Here's this week's news:

Quote From a New CHA Parent

"Thank you so very much for a wonderful first two weeks. We are already so impressed by the school. Our daughter is in Kindergarten, and we couldn't be happier!! Keep up the great work!" ~ new CHA parents

Do You Participate In United Way Donations?

Chapel Hill Academy is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit corporation and can be designated for United Way Donations. Our employer Tax ID # is 41-0965970. Consider supporting Chapel Hill Academy through United Way donations, and be sure to let others who would like to support Christian education know that we are eligible. Contact Leslie Robertson robertsonl@chapel-hill.org if you have any questions.

Parent Portal Access Coming Next Friday

We had hoped that our new parent portal would be fully integrated between TADS and Cornerstone and accessible by now. Though full implementation is near, we are now able to give parents access to the grade and classroom reports offered in Cornerstone starting this coming Friday, October 14. Parents will receive log-on information next week via email with instructions as to how you can access your child's classroom and grade reports. Please be looking for that email from Chapel Hill Academy next Friday. Thank you for your patience and flexibility as we transition to our new parent portal.

Golf Challenge Gratitude

Chapel Hill Academy would like to extend special thanks to our Golf Challenge Event Sponsor, Barb and Gary Hegenes. We would also like to extend our gratitude to our other key sponsors, Stafford Family Realtors, Foss Swim School and The Gold Guys, and many other sponsors and volunteers. Your support contributed to the success of our event and allows us to raise tomorrow's leaders today and make a difference for Eternity. We truly could not do this without you. THANK YOU!

Mr. Siciliano Blesses CHA!

A HUGE thank you to Thomas Siciliano (dad to Emma in 5th grade), who came into the art room through the month of September to teach students the history, art and science of papermaking. Students from Kindergarten through 8th grade also learned how papermaking relates to us as Christians in how the word of God was spread throughout history. It was a fantastic unit in which all students made paper that they will use throughout the school year. Take a moment to walk down the halls by the auditorium to see some of the examples. Thank you again, Mr. Siciliano!

It's Time to Order Your Poinsettias

A brochure will be coming home Monday with your child. The PFA (Parent Fellowship Association) would like to encourage people to order for themselves, as gifts and to bring them to their offices to their fellow work friends. Orders are due back November 8. Please contact Brenda Schmidt with any questions: 952-826-0888

Hot Lunch News

Time to Order Lunch for Quarter 2: The new menu and order form are available by clicking on this link. Hard copies are available in the Parent Center. Please return your order form to the basket in the Parent Center by Tuesday, October 18 (the last day before MEA break).

"Oops - I forgot My Lunch Charges": We are always happy to feed your child if they forget their lunch. They may be offered hot lunch if there is extra, or a sack lunch. If your child has utilized this service in the month of September, charges will show on your TADS account. If you would like to know specific days your child came in, please contact the kitchen by e-mailing hotlunch@chapel-hill.org.

Special Thanks from the Kitchen: Our kitchen has been blessed by generous donations of new commercial kitchen equipment; our sincerest thanks go to Todd Anderson and North Star Agency. Wendy Hultine, a CHA grandma, is regularly volunteering in the kitchen and bringing extra sparkle and joy to our serving. Melanie Riederich volunteered to serve samples, giving the children a chance to taste a bite of broccoli, raisin, grape and bacon salad. Her clever marketing had kids trying "Grapes in the Forest" salad, which is far more appetizing than "broccoli" salad." Thank you from the kitchen crew!

Here's this week's news:

Quote From a New CHA Parent

"Thank you so very much for a wonderful first two weeks. We are already so impressed by the school. Our daughter is in Kindergarten, and we couldn't be happier!! Keep up the great work!" ~ new CHA parents

Do You Participate In United Way Donations?

Chapel Hill Academy is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit corporation and can be designated for United Way Donations. Our employer Tax ID # is 41-0965970. Consider supporting Chapel Hill Academy through United Way donations, and be sure to let others who would like to support Christian education know that we are eligible. Contact Leslie Robertson robertsonl@chapel-hill.org if you have any questions.

Parent Portal Access Coming Next Friday

We had hoped that our new parent portal would be fully integrated between TADS and Cornerstone and accessible by now. Though full implementation is near, we are now able to give parents access to the grade and classroom reports offered in Cornerstone starting this coming Friday, October 14. Parents will receive log-on information next week via email with instructions as to how you can access your child's classroom and grade reports. Please be looking for that email from Chapel Hill Academy next Friday. Thank you for your patience and flexibility as we transition to our new parent portal.

Golf Challenge Gratitude

Chapel Hill Academy would like to extend special thanks to our Golf Challenge Event Sponsor, Barb and Gary Hegenes. We would also like to extend our gratitude to our other key sponsors, Stafford Family Realtors, Foss Swim School and The Gold Guys, and many other sponsors and volunteers. Your support contributed to the success of our event and allows us to raise tomorrow's leaders today and make a difference for Eternity. We truly could not do this without you. THANK YOU!

Mr. Siciliano Blesses CHA!

A HUGE thank you to Thomas Siciliano (dad to Emma in 5th grade), who came into the art room through the month of September to teach students the history, art and science of papermaking. Students from Kindergarten through 8th grade also learned how papermaking relates to us as Christians in how the word of God was spread throughout history. It was a fantastic unit in which all students made paper that they will use throughout the school year. Take a moment to walk down the halls by the auditorium to see some of the examples. Thank you again, Mr. Siciliano!

It's Time to Order Your Poinsettias

A brochure will be coming home Monday with your child. The PFA (Parent Fellowship Association) would like to encourage people to order for themselves, as gifts and to bring them to their offices to their fellow work friends. Orders are due back November 8. Please contact Brenda Schmidt with any questions: 952-826-0888

Hot Lunch News

Time to Order Lunch for Quarter 2: The new menu and order form are available by clicking on this link. Hard copies are available in the Parent Center. Please return your order form to the basket in the Parent Center by Tuesday, October 18 (the last day before MEA break).

"Oops - I forgot My Lunch Charges": We are always happy to feed your child if they forget their lunch. They may be offered hot lunch if there is extra, or a sack lunch. If your child has utilized this service in the month of September, charges will show on your TADS account. If you would like to know specific days your child came in, please contact the kitchen by e-mailing hotlunch@chapel-hill.org.

Special Thanks from the Kitchen: Our kitchen has been blessed by generous donations of new commercial kitchen equipment; our sincerest thanks go to Todd Anderson and North Star Agency. Wendy Hultine, a CHA grandma, is regularly volunteering in the kitchen and bringing extra sparkle and joy to our serving. Melanie Riederich volunteered to serve samples, giving the children a chance to taste a bite of broccoli, raisin, grape and bacon salad. Her clever marketing had kids trying "Grapes in the Forest" salad, which is far more appetizing than "broccoli" salad." Thank you from the kitchen crew!
