Fine Arts are thriving here at Chapel Hill Academy! Inside you will find a wonderfully detailed handbook of all our fine arts offerings for the entire 2021-2022 school year. Here at CHA we pursue the study of visual, musical, and theatre arts with these five distinctives in mind: Glorifying God, Pursuing Excellence, Growing in Relationships, Fostering Creativity, and Studying the Classics. Whether you are a prospective family considering CHA for your child, or a current family who is looking to see what amazing Fine Arts opportunities await you this school year, we hope that you are inspired, informed, and invigorated by all the Fine Arts offerings at CHA!

Soli Deo Gloria,
Emily Danger
Director of Fine Arts

Five Distinctives

1) Glorifying God

Our relationships with Christ come first at Chapel Hill Academy, and that is no more evident than in the Fine Arts program. Talents are God-given, and we foster those gifts to glorify our Creator.

2) Pursuing Excellence

Students are encouraged to excel at a high standard in all their pursuits. Whether we are studying standard artistic practices or examining new methods, our pursuit of excellence in fine arts is a distinctive offering here at Chapel Hill.

3) Growing in Relationships

We foster growth in students' relationships with God, their peers, and themselves. Fine Arts at Chapel Hill Academy take place in a team-oriented environment where students build character, confidence, and collaborative skills.

4) Fostering Creativity

God is the ultimate creator, and at Chapel Hill Academy we emulate that attribute by pursuing creativity ourselves! Students are given opportunities to study the creative process and develop their own individual creative skills.

5) Studying the Classics

Teaching a classics-based Fine Arts curriculum at Chapel Hill Academy means that students have the exciting opportunity to study what makes great art - great! We cover the best of the best, old and new, when it comes to visual art, music, and theatre.

If the Beast does not learn his lesson soon, he and his household will be doomed for all eternity.

Music Curriculum

General Music: Grades JK-4th Grade: Students will cultivate a love of music by understanding the basic elements of music through listening, singing, playing classroom instruments, and movement. Students will be involved in various performances throughout the year, as stated in the calendar.

Choir: Choir students learn to sing joyfully while studying a wide variety of music, ranging from classic masterpieces to pop standards. Music literacy is also a large component to choral studies. Students study how to read music through solfege, rhythm studies, sight reading, and listening. Students are expected to attend all performances. Please see Mrs. Danger for a make-up assignment if unable to attend.

Students in fifth & sixth grade all continue to take Choir as a core academic subject. In the sixth grade choir, students prepare for the CHA Christmas Concert (fall semester) and the Spring Sing (spring semester).

Band: Band is available for students in 4th-8th grades. Private lessons are arranged and taught throughout the week by Mr. Runyan. Large group band meets twice weekly before school.

Musical Theater

After sixth grade, students move to an electives-based curriculum. In the fall, all seventh & eighth grade students are placed in Choir or Band. Their culminating performance of the fall semester is the CHA Christmas Concert. In the spring, seventh & eighth grade students may choose Musical Theatre class for their elective. There are no required music classes for the spring semester. Musical Theater will focus on performance and the technical side of theater.

Art Curriculum

With the knowledge that God is the Ultimate Artist and He is wildly creative in His work, middle school students will explore and discover their God given creativity through art classes at CHA. In sixth and seventh grade, students will use their understanding of the principles of art through projects that speak to their culture. With the challenge to be Biblically-minded, each project will allow for student expression while being mindful of good use of art principles. Art projects will introduce students to many different mediums such as drawing, painting, graphics, collage, ceramics, wire, and other 3D materials. Many projects will connect with their core subjects such as language arts and history. Every student is considered an artist coming into class and has the understanding that we all are creative in our own ways.

7th & 8th Grade Electives

Fine Arts electives change from year to year dependent on scheduling and staffing. Second semester scheduling information and course availability will be provided in December.

Co-Curricular

Band

The CHA band has several opportunities to showcase their talents throughout the year. In the fall, the band performs for both the Veterans Day program and Christmas Concert. In addition, students are given the opportunity to participate in an adjudicated contest both as soloists and as an entire band in the spring.

Band practices are held two days a week as an extra-curricular, before-school option and last hour of the day on Wednesdays. Band fees are billed directly to families' TADS accounts. Private lessons by our band director are available; lesson times can be arranged online. Payments are made directly to Mr. Runyan.

Worship Team

Worship Teams at Chapel Hill serve God by leading music during weekly chapel services. After an audition vocalists, drummers, guitarists, pianists, wind and strings players are placed on one of several teams and rotate weekly. Rehearsals are held before school on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:20 AM, and Wednesday at 8:00. They will also meet during Focus time on Wednesdays. In addition to leading worship during chapels, teams lead an uplifting all school worship event.
